Dear Dr. De Gaetano and coauthors,

I'm sorry to report that we must interrupt the peer review process and decline from further consideration of your manuscript at Ocean Science. Both Referees have raised objections which may be more substantial than what one could ordinarily expect to address successfully in revision.

Surely there is good and useful work reported in your paper, and much effort behind its preparation. I am, again, sorry to deliver this unfortunate decision.

As Editor, yours sincerely, —Matthew Hecht
