Dear Editor,

First of all thanks for your email and for your availability,

We confirm you our wish to submit a revised version of the manuscript, we actually have already finished to write the two Responses to the Referee's comments and the revised version and are now doing the very last checks.

We will then be able to submit the revision by next week at the very latest. We are again sorry for this delay, due to a very busy period,

Thanks and best regards, Andrea Storto and coauthors
